Mrs. Vaidehi Mhaisapurkar holding for Shubhangi kadam for the Applicant.

Mr.S.S.Pednekar, APP. for the State.

CORAM : R.S. MOHITE,J.
DATED : 23.6.2006.

P.C.

1. This is an application for grant of anticipatory bail. The applicant along with two other accused are shown as an accused in C.R.No.185/2006 registered by Hadapsar Police Station, Pune for offences punishable under Section 323, 326 read with 34 of the I.P.C. The police have registered the offence on the complaint of one Archana Lahu Rasal who is the daughter-in-law of the other two accused. On perusal of the complaint, it is clear that the main allegations are against the mother-in-law Laxmibai and father-in-law Kisan. Beating with stick is said to have been given by the father-in-law. On perusal of the injury certificate, it indicates that one grievous injury was caused and therefore, Section 326 has been added. A.P.P. states that no recovery is to be made from the person of the applicant. Taking into consideration the fact that the other accused were arrested and granted bail by the Sessions Court, I am inclined to grant bail to the applicant as the investigation can be completed without the arrest of the present applicant. In the circumstances, it is directed that in the event of arrest in C.R.No.185/2006 registered by Hadapsar Police Station, Pune, the applicant may be released on bail in the sum of Rs.10,000/- with one surety in the like amount subject to the condition that he will report to the concerned Investigating Officer at Hadapsar

Police Station once in a week on every Monday till filing of charge sheet and thereafter once in a fortnight on every first and third Mondays till the disposal of the trial.
